

A VISIT TO THE CENTENNIAL BLACK BOX (CPAS)

A SOCIAL STORY

A visual guide to help your family know what to expect when visiting us—from arrival to the end of the show, including spaces, supports, and amenities.

DIRECTIONS

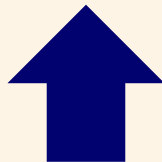

The Centennial Performing Arts Center (or CPAS) is located at:
211 27th Ave N, Nashville, TN 37203

If approaching from West End Blvd, turn onto 27th Ave North (next to the McDonalds).

Drive straight down 27th Avenue. Go through the first stop sign.
The road will curve to the right and lead to another stop sign—turn left.
The first parking lot on your left is CPAS.
If that lot is full, continue past the building for more parking on the left.

CONTINUE

TURN LEFT

TURN LEFT

Additional Free Parking is available on the left after the CPAS building, there is even more parking further down the road on the left.

Next to the CPAS building is a playground with swings, slides, and climbing structures. This is a place where bodies can move and get energy out.

If there is time, a visit to the playground could happen before or after the show.

This is the front of the CPAS building.

There is an accessible ramp
to the left of the front doors.

This is the lobby.

Strollers can be parked here.

On the left, there is a water fountain with a bottle-filling station.

There is a vending machine in this hallway.
It has snacks that cost between $1.00 and $2.50.
We may be able to buy a snack, or we may not.

Down the hallway to the left from the lobby
is the Black Box Theatre.

There are two bathrooms in this hallway.

Both bathrooms have a changing table.

At the end of the hallway, a black door leads to the theatre. A sign above the door says “Centennial Black Box Theatre.”

In the hallway, there may be tables with information from our partners.

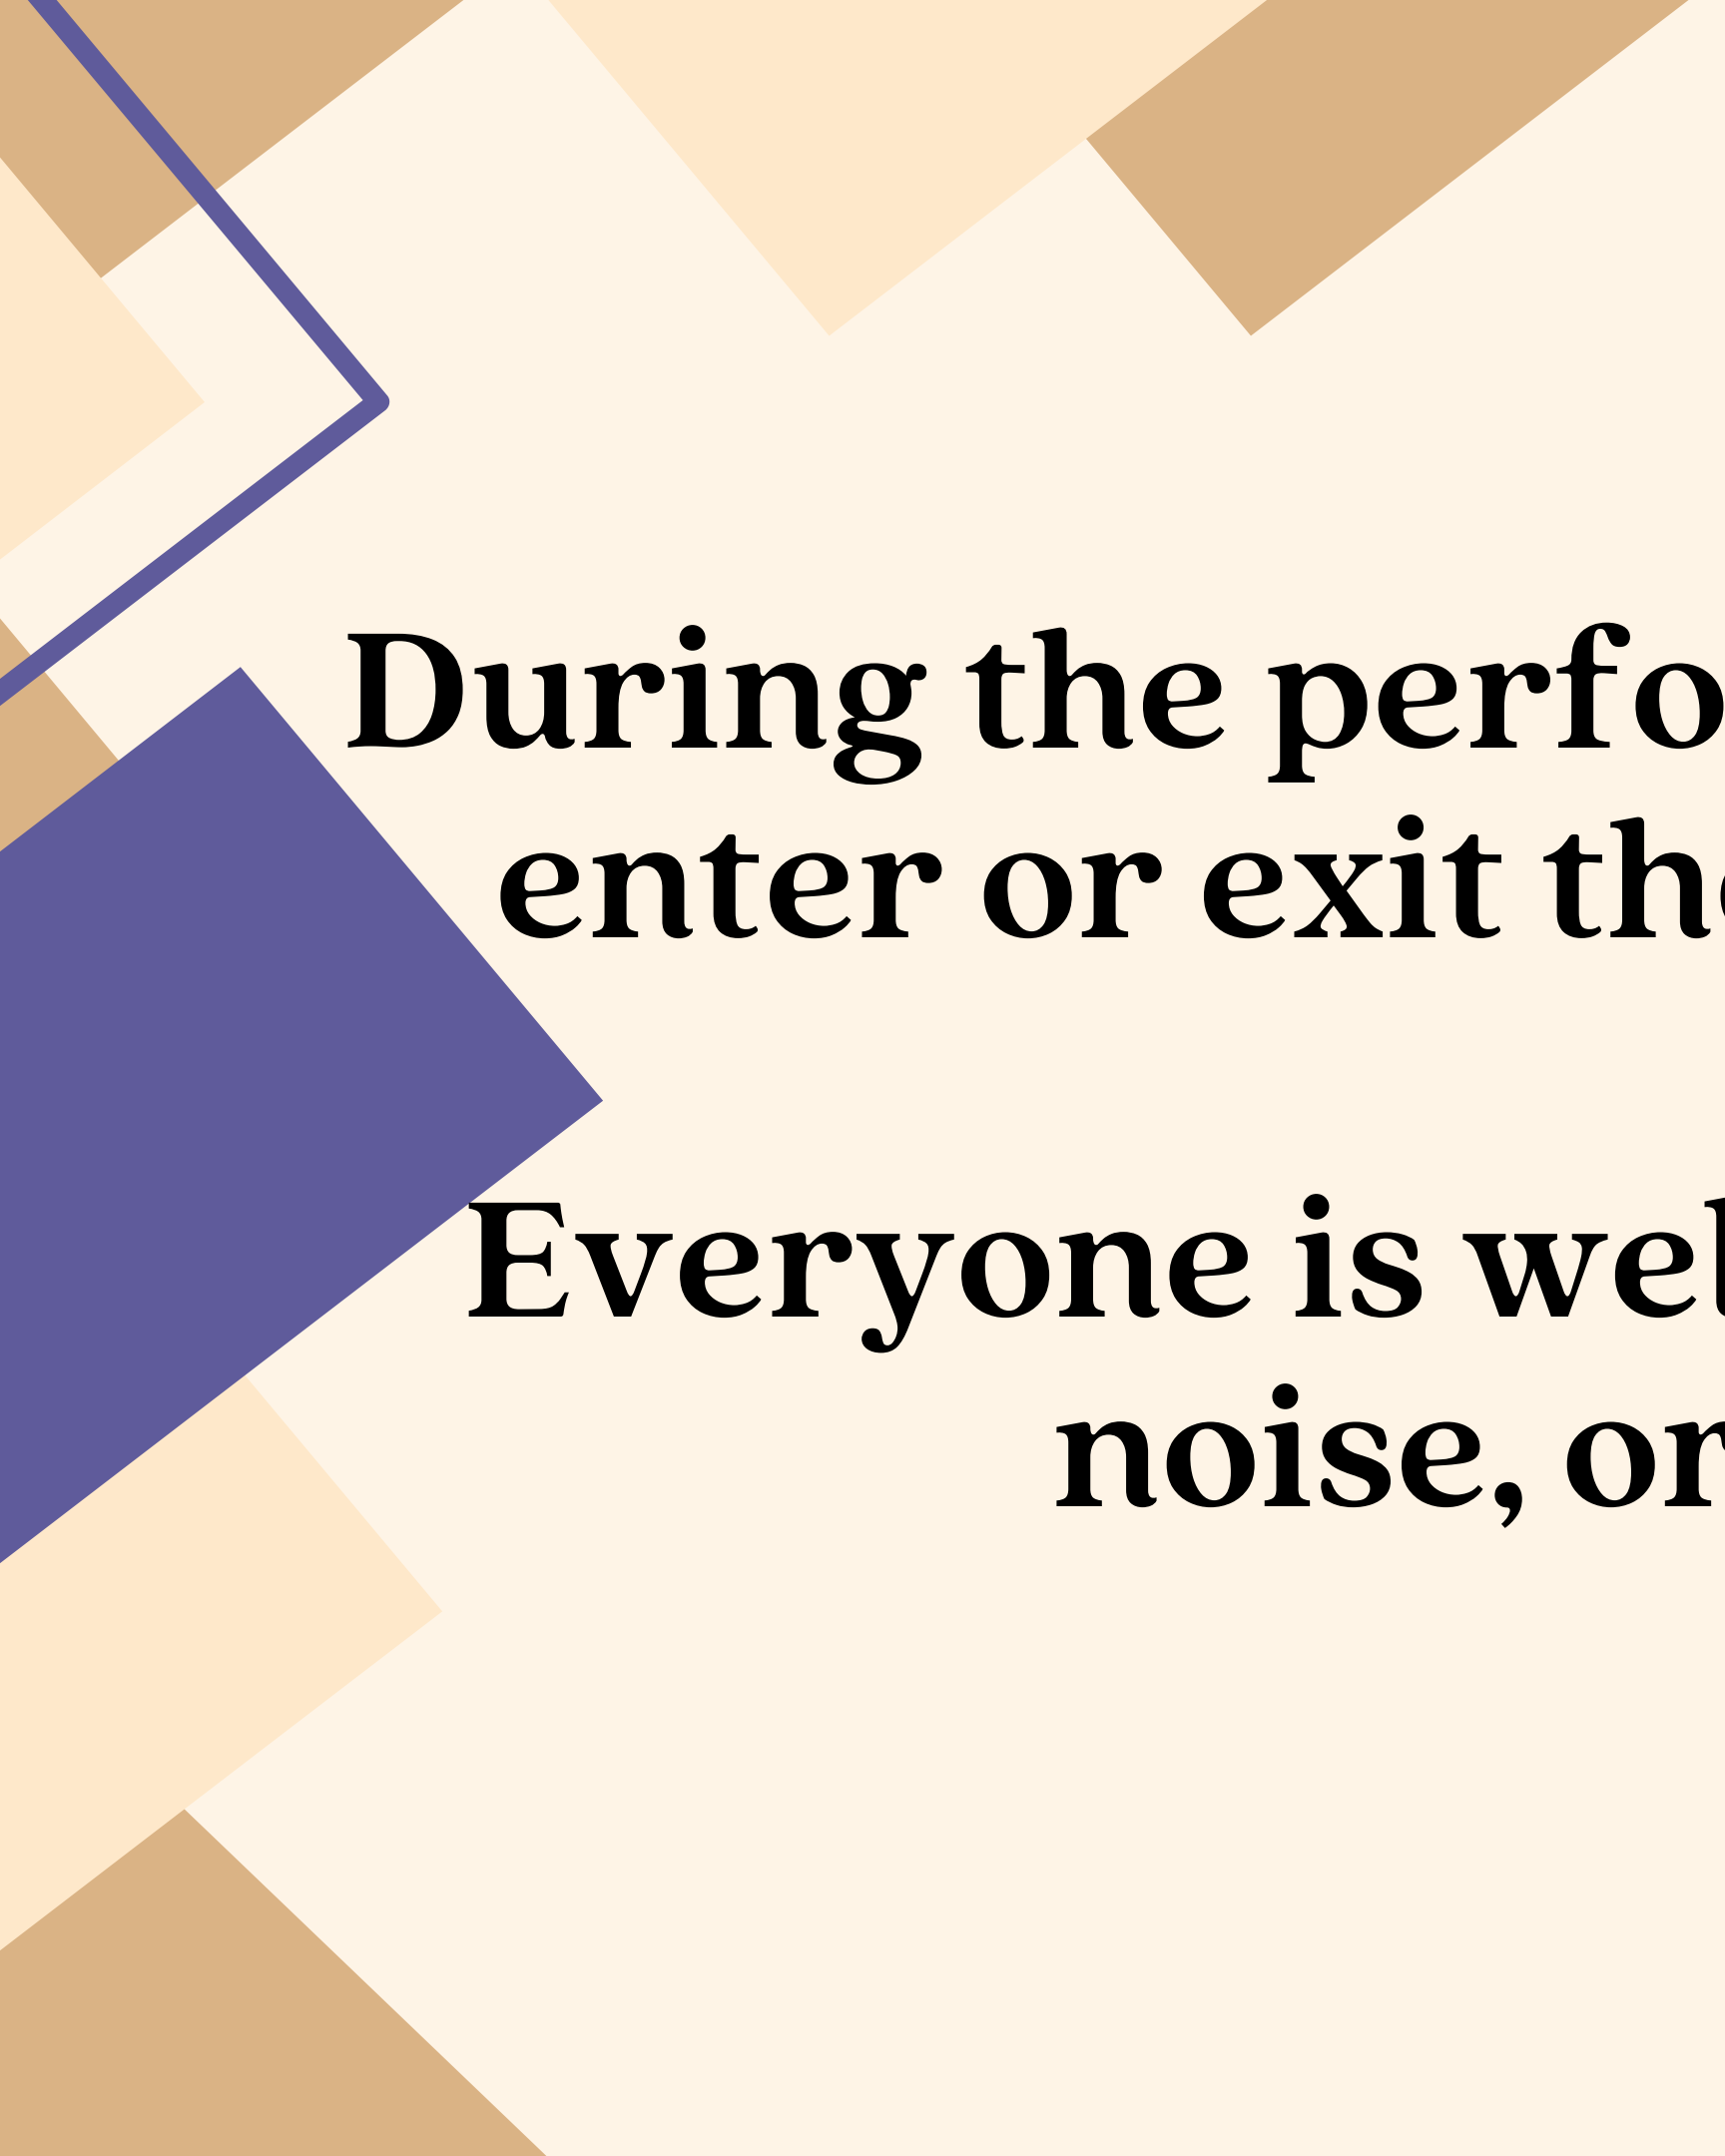

There may also be pre-show activities, such as coloring, fidget tools, and books.

THERE MAY BE A LINE TO ENTER THE THEATRE.

Inside the Black Box Theatre, seating is not assigned and you will need to choose your own seat with your group.
Bottled water will be available.
Exploring the space is okay.
Eating a snack is okay.

FAMILIES MAY USE THE FIDGETS, BOOKS, AND ACTIVITIES IN THE THEATRE WHILE WAITING FOR THE SHOW TO START.

During the performance, families may enter or exit the theatre as needed.

Everyone is welcome to move, make noise, or take breaks.

A photograph of a person with curly hair, wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt, a light-colored apron, and a cap with a red and black pattern. They are seated and playing a black electronic keyboard instrument on a wooden stand. A microphone on a stand is positioned to the left of the keyboard. In the background, a large brass tuba is visible. The image is framed by abstract geometric shapes in shades of blue, yellow, and white.

The performance may include music,
movement, and sound.
Some sounds may be louder or quieter than others.

NOISE-REDUCING HEADPHONES WILL BE AVAILABLE IN THE THEATRE.

When the performance is over, the performers will let everyone know.

THERE MAY BE APPLAUSE OR CHEERING.

After the show, families may take their time getting ready to leave.

Any sensory tools or books will need to be returned.

EVERYONE AT THE THEATRE HOPES TO SEE YOU AGAIN SOON!

www.littlebluetheatre.org | Story created by Colin Peterson